

Hirease, the service leader in pre-employment background screening, sponsored the 2010 Nebraska Golf Classic in aid of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. The event was held at the Quarry Oaks Golf Course in Omaha, NE.

Our own CEO and Founder, Paul Dent, raising over $12,000, hosted a foursome at the tournament and ten clients at the pre-golf banquet. The event was well attended by noted sports players and celebrities. Ndamukong Suh, 2010 second round Detroit Lions NFL draft pick, was the keynote speaker at the pre-golf banquet. Additional celebrities included: Sterling Sharpe, former NFL wide receiver, Mike Rozier, 1983 Heisman Trophy winner, Philip Dilliard, fourth round 2010 NFL draft pick for the NY giants and Zach Potter, tight end for the Jacksonville Jaguars. An avid football fan, our CEO was sure to capture his interchanges with the celebrities – who were great sports!

This exciting event raised an astonishing $200,000 in total for the CF Foundation, and Hirease would like to thank all our clients who participated and donated to this worthy cause. Our tag line, a better way to better people, extends not only to our business practices, but out into the communities in which we serve. We are proud to have been given the opportunity to participate in this great event and wish the foundation well in their goal of turning dollars into medications, therapies and treatments that will extend and improve the lives of all children and young adults who suffer from CF.

About the Nebraska Golf Classic. Every dollar raised from this event funds the needed science and medical therapeutics that continue to improve both the quality and length of life for Cystic Fibrosis patients. Twenty years ago life expectancy for people living with cystic fibrosis was in the teens. Through events such as the Nebraska Golf Classic the Foundation has fueled medical discovery like no other voluntary health organization has ever done. Today, patients can expect to live to be nearly 38 years old.
