

-PRESS RELEASE -

Paul Dent honored at the Triangle Business Luncheon

Triangle – February 26th, 2010 (RALEIGH, NC) – Paul Dent, CEO and Founder of Hirease - a service leader in background search, applicant and drug screening – was recognized as a top entrepreneur in the triangle region at a luncheon hosted by Business Leader Magazine.

Unbeknownst to him, Dent was nominated for the award by an employee who extolled his unique way of motivating and encouraging his staff to give the highest level of customer service to their clients, and the way in which he has grown the company in the eight years since its inception. In a short acceptance speech, Dent acknowledged his employees as being instrumental in the Hirease's success.

Dent was also profiled in the 2010 Book of Leaders, special mention being given to the work he does for the local community and various charities.

Hirease is an employee screening services company with a difference. At Hirease you are not a number or an inconvenience; we truly care about our clients and their businesses. If you call us you will always get to speak to a real person without having to wade through an automated telephone system. We offer you the ability to create, implement and manage your pre-employment screening and your applicant tracking seamlessly. Whether you need an end-to-end screening system, or just an occasional background search, we are here to help you discover a better way to better people.